

La Lista Latina 2000 Kansas City, MO

On Saturday August 5th nine EPA volunteers staffed a booth that was very active at the La Lista Latina Live-Community Expo. The event was held from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the American Royal Exhibition Center. This Hispanic community show hosted over 30,000 people, that included not only booths from various organizations and companies, but also live music, tasty food, and a low rider vehicle display. The EPA display focused on Children's Health and also Environmental Justice issues in the Hispanic community. Charlie Chipmunk, Region 7's mascot, also made a late afternoon appearance delighting children of all ages, and handed out his coloring books. The total give-aways for the day were approximately 200 Charlie Va a Pueblo books, 50 Charlie Goes to Town books, and 200 Charlie coloring books. Inserted in the Charlie Coloring books were also helpful Children's Health Tip Sheets. Approximately 100 English language and 80 Spanish language Children's Health Tip Sheets of these were given out. The distribution of most the EPA materials made this show very successful.
